

I move to change the name of the existing International Literature Scholarship Fund to "International Literature Fund" and clarify the scope to include additional publishing, translation, printing and distribution activities to ensure equitable access to ACA literature as deemed reasonable by ACA WSO.